Trunk or Treat

What is Trunk-or-Treat? It's just like Halloween night, except people decorate their car trunks in crazy and creative ways and pass out treats from their trunks. It's a blast to walk along the parking lot to see all the creative trunks! "Trunk-or-Treat" cars will park in a designated area so it will be extra safe for families to walk on the "Trunk-or-Treat" path.

Does everyone need to decorate their car to participate ?

No way! You can hand out candy from a lawn chair or a bowl near your car. You can come to enjoy the food and fun. You can walk around to the trunks to receive candy. The goal is to have fun together!

Volunteers Needed:

We can use some helpers to make lunch that day, and to set up some fun and games in addition to the trunks. Lunch and games will be outside. A sign-up sheet will be emailed soon.

How does it work?

On Sunday, Oct 31, after church, we'll take a few minutes to get everything and everyone ready. Then, we'll have lunch and share treats in the parking lot!

When is it? Who can come?

Sunday, October 31, from 11:30am—12:30pm at LCR parking lot.
All are welcome—invite your friends!
