September 23, 2022

Tom and I have been praying for some time about when to retire. In August we officially set the retirement process in motion. Our retirement date will be January 31, 2023. We'll communicate more about what it will entail when the time draws near.

Recently we had the opportunity to give input to the next three-year phase of the Waja and Lala Translation Projects. We plan to continue to work with them on a voluntary basis as long as our health allows. In the past three weeks I (Mary) have had chest pain in the night twice (it was not a heart attack) and an episode of amnesia (it was not a stroke). I feel fine, but this is unsettling! Pray that we would rest in Jesus.

Thank you for your faithful prayer support! You have had a major impact on our lives and on our ministry of Bible translation.

Peace in Christ,

Mary
