LCR'S NEW CHILDREN & YOUTH MINISTRY COORDINATOR

Dear Lutheran Church of the Resurrection,

I am so excited to announce that I have accepted the position of part-time Children's and Youth Ministry Coordinator at LCR! I have worked for many years in the field of education and I am excited to use my unique set of experiences and skills to mentor the youth at our church.

I began my career as an elementary and middle school classroom teacher, but eventually realized my true calling was in creating high quality educational programming in a more informal setting. I began working at Richard Bong State Recreation Area part-time as their Naturalist Educator. In this position, I have found great success in facilitating educational programming and I have learned an immense amount about coordinating large groups of volunteers and working with non-profit organizations. I'm excited to transfer these skills to my new position at LCR.

I love Lutheran Church of the Resurrection. Our church has been incredibly special to me throughout my life for so many different reasons. It has been a special place to connect with God, connect with family and friends, and even to explore and express my own abilities. I'm so excited to help new generations experience similar fellowship and self-exploration in a Christian setting.

I sincerely thank our congregation and church for all of the support over the years! I am looking forward to serving LCR in a new capacity!

Love and Peace,

Emily Jacobson
