BOOK CLUB

Join us to discuss:

JAMES by Percival Everett

James is a retelling of Mark Twain's 1885 novel Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, which is widely regarded as a classic work of American literature. The perspective of events from Jim, the runaway slave, gives us an eye-opening view on the tale.

LENT STUDY – BEGINS MARCH 10

This Lent ponder the themes of justice, poverty, freedom and love.

Classes will be on Mondays at 11am & 6pm.

This Lent, we will ponder the themes of justice, poverty, freedom, and love.

The four New Testament Gospels aren't the same story, but they offer the same Resurrection hope. Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John devote most of their story detailing Jesus' last week in Jerusalem, all highlighting Jesus' triumphant entry into the city, the suffering and humiliation of the cross, and the empty tomb come Sunday morning, but the stories they tell aren't quite the same.

Each Gospel offers a different lens through which we understand Jesus' Passion. One portrait reveals Jesus to be in control, while another emphasizes his suffering. In one story Jesus offers hope to the thief on the cross, and in another Jesus only receives derision. These different perspectives aren't a reason to dismiss the Gospels; rather they reveal an abundant, diverse, and complementary picture of God's work in the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus.

Join us we study Matt Rawle's Book, "The Final Days: A Lenten Journey through the Gospels". You can purchase the book here: <https://www.amazon.com/Final-Days-Journey-through-Gospels/dp/1791034160?source=ps-sl-shoppingads-lpcontext&ref=fplfs&pfc=1&smid=ATVPDKIKX0DER>
